1. Introduction

Teacher education and child development training form the cornerstone of a thriving educational ecosystem. The quality of early childhood educators, Montessori practitioners, counsellors, and special education professionals directly determines the holistic growth and learning outcomes of every child placed in their care.

NSDVE Child Education Programs are designed to prepare competent, compassionate, and professionally skilled educators who can meet the diverse needs of children from early infancy through primary schooling. These programs blend evidence-based theory with hands-on practical training, ensuring that graduates are equipped with the knowledge, tools, and professional confidence to excel in classrooms, counselling rooms, and care settings.

This academic handbook provides a comprehensive overview of all programs offered under the NSDVE Child Education umbrella — from foundation-level Certificate and Diploma courses to advanced Post Graduate Diploma and Master Diploma programs.

13. Assessment Structure

NSDVE employs a comprehensive multi-modal assessment approach that evaluates both theoretical knowledge and practical competence. All programs are assessed through the following components:

Theory Examinations

End-of-term written examinations assess theoretical knowledge, conceptual understanding, and application of subject matter. Each theory paper carries 100 marks.

Internal Assessments

Continuous internal assessments including assignments, presentations, seminar participation, and periodic tests contribute to the overall evaluation.

Practical Evaluations

Practical components are assessed through observation sessions, skill demonstrations, supervised practice sessions, and portfolio submissions. Practical marks range from 100 to 600 marks depending on the program.

Internship / Project Assessment

Internship placements and project work are assessed through field supervisors, institutional mentors, and submitted project reports. The quality of internship performance, reflective journals, and project documentation forms a core part of the assessment.

14. Practical Training Information

Practical training is an integral component of all NSDVE Child Education Programs. It bridges theoretical learning with real-world professional practice in classroom, counselling, and childcare settings.

Teaching Practice / Classroom Observation

Students undertake structured classroom observation and supervised teaching practice in partner schools, pre-schools, Montessori classrooms, and early childhood centres. Teaching practice develops lesson planning, classroom management, and child interaction skills.

Counselling Practice

Students in counselling and psychology programs engage in supervised counselling sessions, role plays, and case study analysis. Counselling practice is conducted under the guidance of qualified supervisors to ensure ethical and professional standards.

Montessori Materials and EPL Work

Montessori program students receive hands-on training in the preparation and use of Montessori didactic materials, including Exercises of Practical Life (EPL), sensorial materials, and language and mathematics apparatus.

Project Work

Project work provides students with the opportunity to undertake original field research, case studies, or curriculum development projects relevant to their area of specialization.

15. Internship & Project Guidelines

All internship and project activities must be conducted in accordance with NSDVE guidelines and under the supervision of approved mentors and field coordinators.

- Internship placements are arranged by the institution in partnership with schools, preschools, and care centres.
- Students must maintain a daily reflective journal throughout their internship period.
